This book contains viola duet arrangements of inspiring and enjoyable classical music works, by Mozart, Mendelssohn, Beethoven, Brahms and Rossini, based upon the important musical passages from the orchestral repertoire for viola "tutti", also known as the viola section. Harmony is taken from other parts of the orchestra, making the duets harmonious and as close to the original work and character as possible, within a shorter and smaller context. This book would be ideal for viola students who are learning repertoire for youth orchestras, orchestral auditions, or for study in music schools and with private teachers. These pieces could also stand alone as performance music. Backtracks are available on the website violagarden.co.uk

The study of string instruments should include ensemble playing at the earliest possible stage. There is much to be gained from the playing of duets. Each player learns how to listen to the other, and in a short time develops an awareness of balance, musical phrasing, intonation, and tone quality. This type of training is excellent preparation for participation in large groups. These four volumes of duets for two violins will help fill the need for early ensemble experience in the public schools. They should be used in string classes as a supplement to any of the standard string methods. They will also encourage music making outside of the school, with parents or with other students. These duets are ideal for recitals in the public schools and in public school festivals. They may be played by two performers, or by multiple performers on each part, with or without piano accompaniment.
